Speaker Chency is able to wield the "big alick" over a dilatory House when it becomes necessary.

The Democrate are making greater Acadway by the unscating of Republisine in the legislature than they were Able to do in the election.

The reports from the deer hunting henson in the back towns are coming he slower than the election returns, but there is no doubt of the result-there was a glorious slaughter.

It was said during the recent election that Vermonters take their polities harder than most people, but a look Into Massachusetts and New York does not confirm the belief that things are going down any easier there.

A further amendment provides that the words "office of proof or trust under the amiunity of Congress" shall be constreet to mean any office created directly or indirectly by Congress, and for which surclument is provided from the treasury of the United States.

It was an extremely indefensible poaltion which the opponents of the unscatting resolution took yesterday when they stated that the pay of the fourth class postmasters does not come from the treasury of the United States on the ground that they deduct their pay from the money received from the sale of stamps. It is a palpable misstatement of fact to say that the money does not come from the U.S. treasury simply because it does not some direct.
